Virginia Intermont takes pride in many of its alumnae whom it has aided in attaining a success of various types in life. Intermont offers to its students a sound basis for any career they might want to undertake. Who knows what potentially famous singers, pianists, linguists, artists, and scientists may be walking through these halls, gleaning the knowledge that will carry them to high schievement. In its attempt to create a cosmopolitan, well-rounded student, V. I. does not neglect the encouragement and furtherance of promising talent in a specialized field. In its housewives and leaders of tomorrow, Intermont marches on.

Dr. S. J. Marion

DEDICATION

Amidst the hustle and bustle of our many activities, we pause to dedicate this Annual to our friend, Dr. S. J. Marion, to whom we owe an undying vote of thanks for helping us to build a firmer foundation for our futures. His patience together with an understanding of the student body, has made him a symbol of infinite wisdom.

Through his tact and sincerity, Dr. Marion has encouraged the furtherance of the Honor System. It was largely through his efforts on the committee that the Honor System was developed and introduced to the student body. His high ideals and character have led him to a place of distinction and respect, while his quiet dignity sometimes belies his joviality and sparkling wit. He has guided many of us in the paths of science and righteousness, and has impressed upon us the importance of learning and knowledge. He has gained a firm and lasting hold on the hearts of those who have had the good fortune of knowing him. He is a symbol of all things good at Intermont and, wherever he goes, he leaves behind the memory of a gentleman endowed with all the traits that earn him such a title.

So it is with our sincerest gratitude and appreciation that we, the Senior Class of nineteen hundred forty-nine, dedicate our INTERMONT to Dr. Marion.

Dr. Marion received his A. B. degree at Roanoke College and obtained his M. A. and Ph. D. degrees at Columbia University. From 1923 to 1944, he was the head of the Chemistry Department at Lenoir-Rhyne College and was with Hamilton Laboratories from 1944 until 1946. He became head of the Science Department at Virginia Intermont College in 1947.

Dr. Rabun Lee Brantley

With quiet dignity Dr. Brantley runs the ship of state here at Intermont, at the same time taking a personal interest in every girl who comes to him. He instills in us high ideals and a deep understanding of the spiritual, for which we will always be grateful. His loyalty and interest in the activities of each student make him unforgettable.

Dr. Brantley has brought honor and renown to Virginia Intermont through his work in the association of colleges. His fellow educators had the same faith in him that we have when they elected him president of the Southern Association of Junior Colleges and, more recently, president of the Southern Association of Colleges for Women.

Dr. Brantley received his A. B. and M. A. degrees at Mercer University, and obtained his Ph. D. at George Peabody College. At Mary Horden Baylor College he was professor of English and Journalism. He was treasurer at Bessie Tift College and held positions in the English and Journalism Departments. He served as dean at Georgia System Evening College and was editor of the Southern Automobile Journal for two years.

Miss Leonora A. Dorsey

Dean of Women

The personal interest taken in each and every girl by Miss Dorsey has made her someone to whom we can take our problems and successes. Her sincerity and wisdom lead us all toward higher ideals and encourage us to strive toward our goal with renewed vigor.

Her calm dignity lends to the front office a voice of authority, and her courage has been unfailing in her effort to make the Honor System a living reality.

Miss Dorsey received her A. B. at the University of Richmond and her A. M. at Columbia University. She has done graduate study at the University of Chicago and Harvard University. She was teacher and Director of Religious Activities at Women's College, and Dean of Women, Registrar, and Associate Professor of Religion at Coker College. She served as Dean of Women of Campbell College and on the Mortar Board.

Miss Marguerite Pflug

Dean of Faculty

With her kind words, helpful interest, and ability to instill confidence, Miss Pflug has gained a place in the hearts of every Intermont girl. Her quiet charm and gentle dignity, her unselfish serving to further the ideals and integrity of youth, have made her a symbol of the goal we all hope to attain.

A class in French or German under Miss Pflug is an opportunity to find new knowledge, not only of the language, but of the world in which we live. Honor is her code, and no girl will disappoint the confidence she has in us.

Miss Pflug attended preparatory schools in Austria, Germany, and Switzerland. She received her A. B. and Ph. B. at John B. Stetson University. She has done summer work at the University of Berlin and the University of Geneva.

. . . . Admin

Mr. S. O. Snodgrass

Business Manager

The man behind the financial welfare of Intermont is Mr. Snodgrass. It is he who makes our dorms a good place to live and sees that we keep our accounts straight. He gives freely and cheerfully his time to all who seek his help whether it be in business matters or showing movies on Saturday nights.

Mr. Snodgrass brings a friendliness and efficiency to the campus that makes us all greet him with warm sincerity.

Mr. Snodgrass received his A. B. degree from Emory and Henry College. He has taught in Liberty Hall and Virginia High School, and was principal of Barrack, Virginia High School.

Mrs. E. L. Seay

Assistant Dean of Women

The first lady of Intermont, a living symbol of the charm and grace of the old South, is Mrs. Seay. Her dignity and friendliness combine to make all who come to V. I. know and love her. Her genuine enthusiasm and sparkling wit have made even the most shy of our boy friends feel at home.

That's our "Mumsie," in all her charming sincerity, but we have other memories of her too. Certainly none of us will ever forget her "monkey-shines" at the Faculty Frolic; or the half-joking, half-serious way she has of bawling us out; or her eagerness to have the best dances and parties possible for us; or her constant desire to make ladies of all of us.

Our "Mumsie" stands for many things and high ideals. She is indeed a great lady.

FACULTY

MISS ADAMSON—Whether finding our books or answering our questions, Miss Adamson is unfailingly helpful, cheerful and patient. MR. AYERS—Good looking Mr. Ayers with his friendly and helpful attitude has become a favorite of all. MISS BALL—An artist in her own right, Miss Ball deftly directs the brush of many aspiring young painters. MISS CLARK—Untiring and conscientious, Miss Clark divides her time among her students, Honor Council and Y. W. A. MISS COMPTON—Doing her best to keep us on the straight and narrow path, Miss Compton is always found where she is needed most. MR. COOKE—Seldom is found a person as versatile as Mr. Cooke, V. I.'s fountainhead of culture, who keeps us interested in Music, Art and Literature—especially Hamlet! MRS. CURRIN—It is as if she stepped off the cover of Vogue. Truly, Mrs. Currin is a living model for her students. MR. DANIEL—A good sport, lots of fun, and a deep thinker, Mr. Daniel interprets the dark ages of the past as could no one else. MR. EDMONDSON—Mr. Edmondson is indeed one of our Southern gentlemen. Easy-going and friendly, he is a favorite of all. MISS ELLER—Smartly dressed, and very feminine, Miss Eller is equally at ease at the piano or the organ. MISS HAYES—A fit subject for the artist's brush herself, Miss Hayes paints, and teaches with ease. MR. JONES—A true Virginian and completely charming. Mr. Jones has an enviable passion for beginning his excellent drama productions on time. MRS. LOCKETT—With a beautiful voice and a friendly smile, Mrs. Lockett sets a goal for those interested in singing. MISS LOLMAUGH—This pert, petite pianist has cast a spell with her music and charmed us with her vivacity and efficiency. MISS MEADE—Always sympathetic and understanding, Miss Meade can be depended upon for any help that might be needed, accompanied by her gentle, friendly smile. MRS. MILNE—Mrs. Milne will be remembered for instilling a sense of honor in her students and for lending a sympathetic ear to our troubles. MISS MILLER—To all girls, Miss Miller symbolizes their first love, home economics. As busy as she may be she will always listen to and understand our troubles. MISS McCROSKEY—Miss McCroskey's bright smile, her vivacious manner, and her sense of humor make us love her in spite of those Friday tests. MR. OSTHOFF—A forceful personality embodied in a sensitive musician is portrayed in this rising artist. MR. PEARCE—A refreshing personality with an engaging one-sided grin, Mr. Pearce practices his psychology to good advantage. MISS ROUSE—An accomplished violinist, Miss Rouse enlivens her class with her quick wit. MISS SMITH—Her appealing methods have made her classes hours of enjoyment and inspiration for the secretaries of tomorrow. MISS STRONG—The dark, handsome features of Miss Strong are seen in the classroom, Y. W. C. A. Cabinet meetings, or wherever there is work to do. MR. STULL—A new comer to V. I., Mr. Stull's personal interest in all his students has made him a popular personality on campus. DR. TURNER—Likeable "Dr. Jim" is the student's friend whose sensible advice has helped many girls with their problems. MISS WAMSLEY—Her consideration, thoughtfulness, and patience plus her good humor and prettiness, enable Miss Wamsley to instill in her students the qualities of a real secretary. MISS BELL—A slight splash and then a graceful stroke—yes, it is that mischievous, lovable Miss Bell whose presence adds charm for all those interested in sports. MRS. EDWARDS—Hearing Mrs. Edwards' voice echo across the ring makes us envy those students who are on their way to superior horsemanship under her efficient guidance. MISS KEEZEL—Blonde, smiling and peppy is Miss Keezel—a genuine sportswoman and leader for those desirous of high achievement in athletics. MRS. McINTYRE—The first lady of dance at V. I. is our lovely Mrs. McIntyre—Stylish, graceful and charming.

MRS. AMIS—A V. I. alumna, with Southern charm, Mrs. Amis is indispensable to the V. I. family. MISS GARRETT—A bright smile, frank manner and efficiency in the field of mathematics characterize Miss Garrett. MRS. WILLETT—Understanding and generous, Mrs. Willett is an efficient history teacher, Y. W. A. sponsor, and High School sponsor. MRS. WALKER—A hearty laugh, a forceful personality, and an enveloping tenderness for everyone belong to our dietician, Mrs. Walker. MRS. FRITSCHE—A booming "Hello!" greets you from across the counter of the Book Store and Mrs. Fritsche smilingly supplies all your school needs. MRS. CROCKETT—Mrs. "Crickett" flits around like a busy bee carrying out her capacity of Publicity Manager for V. I. MRS. HARPER—Hard-working Mrs. Harper is the person whom we can thank for the hundreds of large cokes we buy every day in the "Tea Hole." MRS. MANSFIELD—A person who can really get things done, Mrs. Mansfield works wonders through her staff and keeps V. I. shining. MRS. PAINTER—"Mom" Painter enjoys great popularity among her girls on fourth floor Main because of her lovable and endearing disposition. MRS. HUNTER—Poise, dignity, and graciousness are Mrs. Hunter's, the housemother of Administration, and a person who adds beauty to V. I. MR. ROBERTS—The fix-it-all man with a beaming face and just about the most sought after man on our campus—that's Mr. Roberts. MRS. CRAFT—Quiet, gentle dignity and with a place in her heart for all the girls of East Hall, Mrs. Craft capably fulfills her position as housemother. MRS. HAMMER—Mrs. Hammer, housemother on second floor Main, holds a great store of fun, sympathy, and true Southern grace in her heart. MRS. TAYLOR—The gentle loveliness of Mrs. Taylor lends an atmosphere of home to Senior and Hodges Halls. MRS. TOMPKINS—"Mama T." offers a helping hand and a bright smile to the girls on third floor Main. MRS. AYERS—Friendly, helpful, considerate Mrs. Ayers has made many friends during her two years at V. I. MISS BAUMGARDNER—Smartly dressed Julia is a capable secretary whose smile graces Dr. Brantley's outer office. MISS BIGGERS—A friendly, well-liked girl who really belongs to V. I. is Caroline, Miss Pflug's efficient secretary. MISS FARMER—Fingers that tinkle the ivory keys and a smile that brightens the day belong to Eunice. MISS FLETCHER—The epitome of the perfect secretary Betty Jo does her work quickly and smoothly in the outer room of Dr. Brantley's office. MRS. TAFT—A cheerful worker in the accountant's office, Mrs. Taft is always happy to be of help to everyone. MRS. TURNER—Her lovely warm smile and sweet personality have endeared Mrs. Turner to the hearts of everyone. MRS. HIATT—Mrs. Hiatt, as she works in the beauty parlor transforms our straggling hair to silky smoothness.

Virginia Intermont presents to its students a widely diversified curriculum to satisfy the needs of everyone. Aside from a varied departmental program, there is a wholesale effort to develop well-rounded students in sports, culture, and fair play. To develop a close cooperation among students and instructor, the classes are small, and conducive to classroom discussion, and thus to an awakened interest in the subject. The main departments are: Language, Music, Physical Education, Secretarial Science, Science, Social Science, and Fine Arts. The Language Department includes French and German under Dean Marguerite Pflug, and Spanish taught by Miss Ada Strong. English is taught by Mr. C. Ernest Cooke, Miss Mary Meade, and Mrs. George P. Milne. The Music Department includes Piano under Mr. Ralph Ostoff and Miss Clara Jean Lolmaugh, Violin taught by Miss Virginia Rouse, and Voice under Mr. Robert Stull. Physical Education is under the direction of Miss Gale Keezel and Miss Jane Bell. Secretarial Science is under the direction of Mr. Harold Ayers, Miss Betty Burr Wamsley, and Miss Mary Lou Smith. In the Science Department, Physics is taught by Miss Marion Clark, Chemistry by Dr. Marion, and Biology by Miss Jeanette McCroskey. The Social Sciences are taught by Mr. Donald C. Pearce and Mr. W. H. Daniel. The Fine Arts Department includes painting and sketching taught by Miss Ruby Ball and Miss Mary Emily Hayes. The Dance course is headed by Mrs. George McIntyre.

TODDY

Introducing those girls who, for two years, have shared defeats and victories, have had their moments of elated happiness mixed with a tinge of momentary despair, and who are leaving behind the marks of their accomplishments as hundreds who have gone before—this is the Senior Class. The officers are Teddy Nelson, president; Phyl Warren, vice-president; Ruth Gump, secretary; and "Toddy" Long, treasurer. These girls have led their class to triumphant victories and through projects like the minstrel show in the junior year and the American Travelogue in the senior year. A great class of which V. I. can be truly proud.

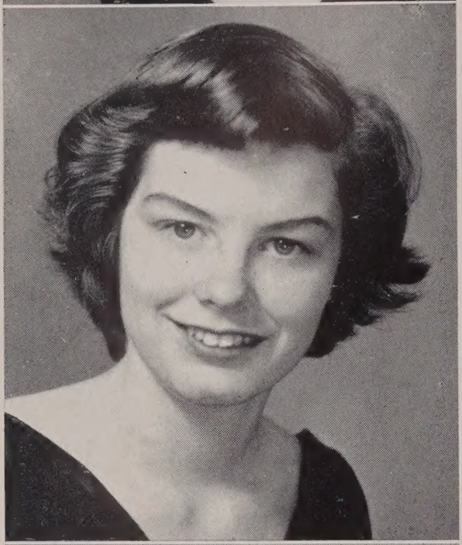
SENIOR CLASS



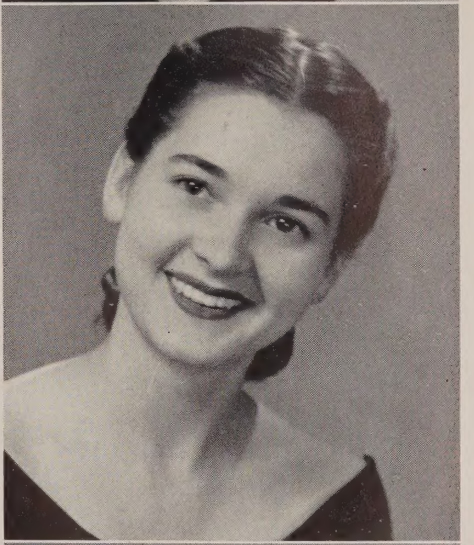
SENIORS

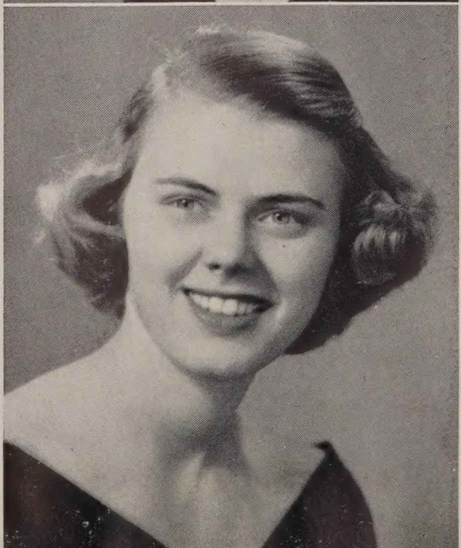
THEODOSIA NELSON—The whole success of the Senior class in a nut-shell, our Teddy will never meet her equal in popularity, driving energy, or versatility. Since words cannot describe her blooming personality or splendid ability, her offices will speak for themselves. She was the class president and song leader for two years, a member of Phi Beta, orchestra, Athletic Association Council, Honor Council, Annual Staff, and accompanist for the Glee Club. She also directed and produced two shows. When we remember V. I., we shall automatically remember Teddy.

PEGGY PATRICK—"Pedgy" is about the tiniest member of the Senior Class, but her executive mind makes you realize that she is a mighty mite. We can always depend on Pedgy to amble into class ten minutes late with one of her wise-cracks. Pedgy takes an active part in various athletics and her proficiency is proved when you see her name among those on varsity hockey. She also played on the Senior basketball team and is a member of the H_2O Club.

JENEANE BRYANT—"Can she bake a cherry pie?" She certainly can, and sew a fine seam too; it's only natural that she should be president of the Home Economics Club. Jeneane will always be remembered by her sparkling smile and the nice things she has done. Jeneane, we're proud of you in May Court, on the Varsity basketball team, and as Business Manager of the Cauldron. You will never be forgotten, you nor the "Chattanooga Choo Choo."

NORMA FRANCES RAOUL—Dependable, ambitious, direct, sincere, and indispensable to life at V. I.—all this is Norma. Her voice is heard by all; whether it be her cheery post-office banter, her more serious "May I have your attention, please," or her radio and stage voice with its clear diction. Norma is president of International Relations Club, Senior Editor of the Annual, vice-president of Delta Psi Omega, and is on the May Court.





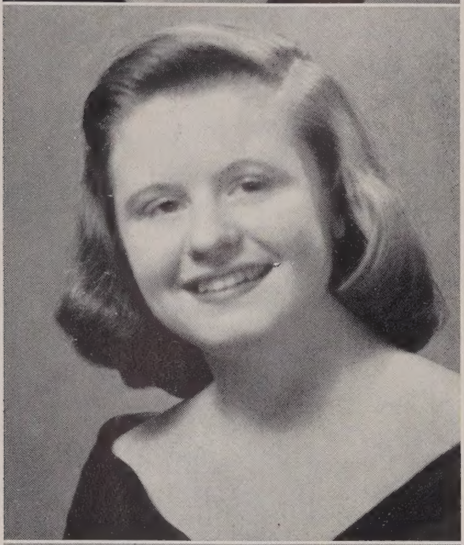
PHYLLIS WARREN—One of the Areannes who takes an active part in campus life is Phyl, whose shrill whistle may be heard sounding across campus every day. Her contagious class spirit has made Phyl the vice-president of the class of '49. She is also president of the H_2O Club, a member of the Glee Club, INTERMONT staff, Boots and Saddle Club, and the varsity hockey and basketball teams. Until she dies and lies in state at the John Steens Funeral Home, we shall remember Phyl.

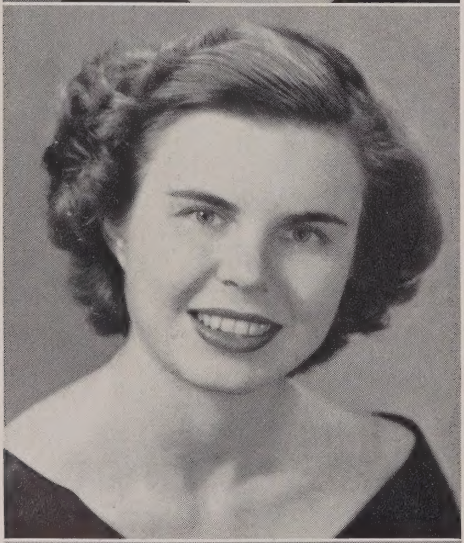
DOROTHY DICKSON—When you see a pretty, dark-haired girl walking across campus with a friendly greeting for everyone she sees, that is Dot. One of the most popular students, she is the advertising manager of the INTERMONT, secretary of the Y.W.C.A., and in May Court. Dot is a very versatile girl, for not only does she have time to do all that her offices require, but she is also a whiz at the sewing machine as anybody can see by the stylish clothes that she wears. We know that Dot will succeed in everything she does—a swell gal!

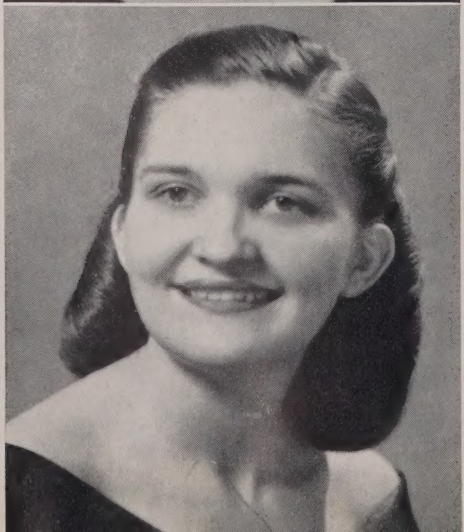
MARY ELLEN GRAY—Here is one little gal that is really "no bigger than a minute." With her warm smile, friendly, cheerful manner, and willingness to help when help is needed, "Skip" is a success in all she undertakes. Although busy with her Secretarial course, as well as activities of the Areanne Club, the Y.W.C.A. and the Y.W.A., "Skip" always has time to stop and talk, or lend that ever-ready helping hand.

ELLEN CHARLOTTE PATRICK—A tall blue-eyed blonde with a wry grin and a crazy sense of humor—it couldn't be anyone but natural, friendly "Wowo," one of our favorite Areannes. Although busy being a "bridge shark" and learning how to be an efficient secretary, "Wowo" finds time to be the president of the Nostrae Filiae Club, plus activities chairman if the Areanne Club, and a member of the Y.W.C.A. and the Y.W.A.

SENIORS







SENIORS

RUTH GUMP—"Gumpie, will you help me with this?" We know what the answer will be, because "Gumpie" never refuses any request—her cigarettes, her time, her washing machine. Besides being Senior Class secretary, Student Government hall president, a member of the annual staff and many other things, "Gumpie has been the moving force behind decorating for numerous dances. Knowing that a person equal to "Gumpie" in ability, looks and character is hard to find, we realize how lucky we are to have been one of her many friends.

DOLORES RUBY—With a quip for any situation and an infectious giggle that bursts out whenever she feels the urge, Dot has pranced right down from Bridgeport, Connecticut into a host of friends. Her witty comments, Yankeeism, and easy-going air make Dot a refreshing person to know. If something goes wrong, she takes it on the chin—her disposition never changes. Dot is taking General Culture and devotes her interests to knitting, gabbing, Y.W.C.A. and Athletic Association.

DELIA GRAHAM—This little blonde girl hailing from Florida has sung her way into many friendships at V. I. Her lovely soprano voice with its wistful touch makes us green with envy as we listen to her crooning her heart away. "Dee Dee" is naturally a Phi Beta member and also a member of the Florida Club, the Athletic Association, and of the Glee Club. Fun-loving and fancy free, "Dee Dee" is one little girl we shall never forget.

LOUISE GREENE—A tall, lovely girl with cool poise in every situation is Louise. Proficient in all she undertakes, Louise especially stands out in the music department as a piano major and as president of Phi Beta, the national music fraternity, and as a member of the orchestra. Louise's sincere, direct manner makes everyone respect and admire her. She is a member of the International Relations Club, Math and Physics Club, and Tennessee Club. Versatile and friendly, Louise will never be forgotten.

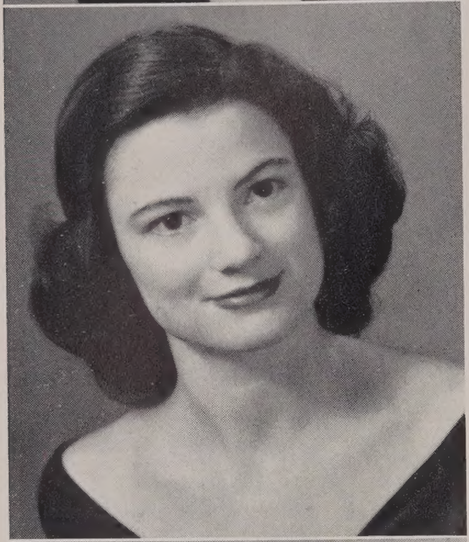
JOAN SARA LONG—Beauty, brains, and eyes that shine with friendliness and love seem almost too much for one girl to have, but Toddy has them all. Brooklyn can add another favorite to her list of illustrious children because Toddy has walked off with the trophy of our love and will go down in our memories as a real champion. She was treasurer of the Senior class, secretary of Phi Beta, and a member of the Orchestra, Click Club, and INTERMONT staff.

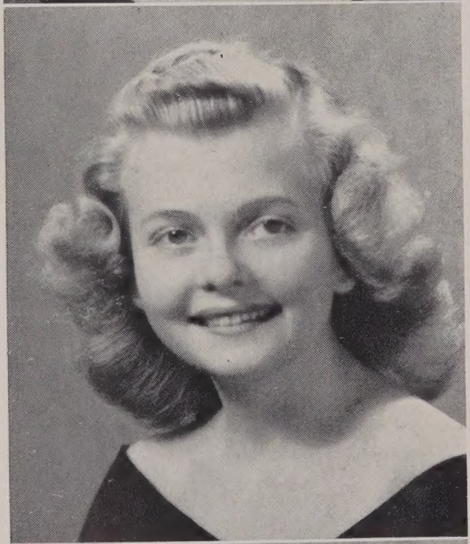
BETTY BAKER—A lovely combination of charm, fun, and business-like efficiency is Betty. This slender, energetic girl was early ear-marked for the important role she has played in V. I. activities. This tall, striking brown-eyed brunette is a Home Economics major. From this realm her interests branch out to include modern dance, serious music, and photography. The hard-working, loyal Editor-in-Chief of the INTERMONT, Betty has done everything possible to make this year's annual a success. The ideal of all loveliness—Betty.

JOAN ERHART—Joanie's lovely voice and expressive stage manner qualify her for any singing career she might choose; but her unselfishness, highness of purpose, and depth of character are the perfect qualifications to make her life a beautiful success as she uses her talent in the field of religious education. She has been Y.W.A. Music chairman, treasurer of Phi Beta, member of Boots and Saddle Club, INTERMONT staff, Junior Orchesis and Click Club.

CAROLYN WILCOX—This petite, blonde miss hails from "God's Country"—Cleveland, Ohio, naturally, and proves her loyalty by being president of the Ohio Club. Carolyn makes a very able Student Government member in Hodges Hall and with her spare time she indulges in her hobby of clicking a camera for some really good snapshots. She is president of the Click Club, a member of Student Government, Glee Club and Home Ec. Club. It is only natural Carolyn should be Trumpeter for May Day.

SENIORS





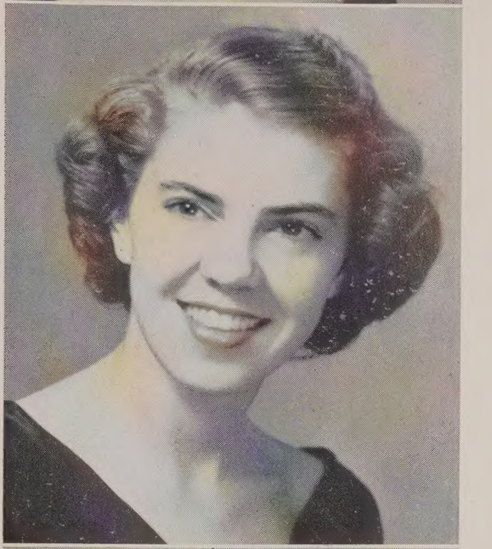
S E N I O R S

TERRY BARNHARDT—Coming to V. I. in the middle of her junior year, didn't stop Terry from making herself well known. Her athletic ability brought her into the Athletic Association. Terry is a member of the Student Government and is well-known by her "lights out, girls." She is a member of the New York-New Jersey Club, and she supports the teams with her vigorous cheerleading. She is on the program committee of the Boots and Saddle Club and is a member of the Chemistry Club.

MARILYN PRESTON—Have you ever seen an attractive dark-haired girl in the chemistry lab, or noticed her name on the Dean's list? The secretary of Phi Theta Kappa is none other than Marilyn Preston. This "Kentucky Kutie" is a member of the Y.W.A., Y.W.C.A., Math Club, Bio-Chemistry Club, and INTERMONT staff. She is also an assistant in the Chem lab. Marilyn will continue college and her eye is looking toward Vanderbilt as her next stop.

SHIRLEY WALLACE—The Lilliputian loveliness of Shirley has made her one of V. I.'s outstanding students. Her gracefulness is proved by her membership in the Junior Orchesis. This petite dresden doll has joined many organizations on campus, and she has shown her leadership by becoming the secretary of the Y.W.A. Shirley is well-liked by all the students and received honors as crown bearer in the May Court. With her membership in the B.S.U. Council, and portrait staff of the INTERMONT, Shirley has proved her worth.

EMMA JEAN SCOTT—This striking, happy-go-lucky girl, better known as "Scotty" is one of the most attractive members of the Senior class. She hides her fun-loving personality behind the blind of a Commercial major, but it blossoms out whenever she hears jazzy music, or when there is a gab session, and she takes the cake when it comes to doing the "Shag." Scotty is an active member of the Curry Club and we'll never forget her portrayal of a lumberjack in the Senior show.



LOUISE GREEAR—Shining blonde hair and a friendly manner characterize this typical Virginian. As secretary of the Granddaughter's Club, Louise is a true daughter of V. I., and loves it just as her mother and grandmother did. She is also treasurer of the Y.W.A. and the B.S.U. Tall and striking, Louise really has a way with men and she has a way with us, too. We'll remember her as one girl we wouldn't have missed knowing.

DORIS MAHANES—Forever dashing around the campus, Doris always has time for a good deed or a bit of mischief. Sincere, efficient, and energetic, Doris is secretary of the B.S.U., program chairman of the Y.W.A., vice-president of the Math and Physics Club, and a member of the International Relations Club, and Glee Club. She is a person who has to be known to be fully appreciated but once you know her, your appreciation knows no bounds.

MARY ELLEN MULLINS—Mary Ellen is the type of girl no college could do without. The winner of the Black Diamond Alumnae chapter scholarship, she has more than lived up to their great expectations. As devotional chairman of the Y.W.C.A., treasurer of the Bio-Chem Club, and a two-year member of the Tip and Run Club, she does every job that comes her way with a willingness that is an inspiration to everyone who knows her.

AVIS WIDOWS—Amiable, straightforward "Skippy" has become a favorite of ours. What would we have done without her valuable two cents worth in those gab sessions? "Skippy" has proved her worth as devotional chairman of the Y.W.A., a two-year booster of the New York-New Jersey Club, and a member of the Glee Club. Her sense of humor and those dark animated eyes make "Skippy" one of the "unforgettables."

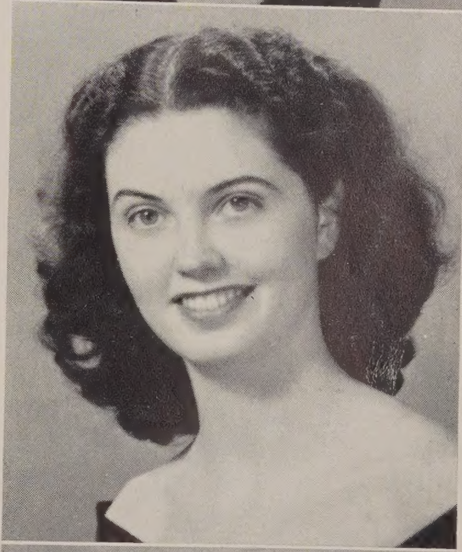
MARGARET JUNE ELLER—Sugar and Spice and everything nice, beautiful and intelligent, tirelessly active, June does many different things calmly, thoroughly, and well. In her junior year she received the coveted Secretarial Scholarship and proved her worth by being a constant member of the Dean's List for two years. She is secretary of Student Government, on the May Court, was recently crowned "Miss Pinafore," a member of Alpha Pi Epsilon, Nostrae Filiae Club, Annual Staff.

LYNETTE AGOSTINI—Everything about Lynette, from the flashing black eyes and sparkling smile, to the fascinating accent, denotes Spanish heritage. "I lak eet, yas," says this gay Senorita, about many, many things, and we feel the same way about her. "Gus" is a busy little body in various organizations, including Tip and Run Club, Thespians, treasurer of the Foreign Girls' Club, Glee Club, Math and Physics Club, Phi Beta, and as trumpeter in May Court. Where could you find a more versatile girl?

BETTY JOHNSON—Quiet until you really get to know her, tiny and talented Betty has a friendly disposition equaled by very few. Much to her roommate's joy, she has a knack for sewing, hairstyling, and keeping the room orderly. A music major is often in the college lime light, either playing for chapel programs, or filling engagements for the music department. She is president of the V. I. Orchestra, a member of Phi Beta, and the Y.W.C.A. cabinet.

GEANNETTE GENT—If you need any help, just call for Geannette and your worries can cease. In the hurry and flurry of our two years she has been one of those rare people who is like a calm island in a stormy sea. Her quiet smile and impish dark eyes form a combination that makes her one of the important cogs in V. I. life. Geannette is an active member of the Y.W.A. and Y.W.C.A.



PAULINE ALLEN—"I'll have time for just one more hand of bridge." We wonder how attractive Pauline ever has time for a moment's recreation. We see her in the classroom, hurrying across campus, in Student Government meetings—always the same understanding person. Pauline has handled the difficult position of Student Government President smoothly and sincerely. A member of the Honor Council, and many other organizations, Pauline has been an ambassador of good will through her gracious and gentle manner.

MARY LOU BOON—A little girl with a big heart is Mary Lou. As president of Second Main and West on Student Government, she has faithfully devoted much of her would-be leisure time to many worthwhile projects. Mary Lou is a member of the Y.W.A., Y.W.C.A., B.S.U., Home Economics Club, Tip and Run Club, and Group Editor of the annual. We have found her to be a loyal friend and an earnest worker.

MARTHA GREEAR—Martha is the tall, pretty girl with the long curly dark hair, and the polite soft voice. She is always ready to help anyone and goes out of her way to be nice to everybody. Primarily interested in Home Economics, Martha spends most of her time making her good-looking clothes that we all admire. Martha is a member of the Glee Club, Home Economics Club, Click Club, Bowling Club, and Skating Club.

BARBARA HARRIS—Shining carrot red hair and an unmistakable British accent are Barbara's trade-marks. She manages her job as dining room hostess expertly; in fact she does all her work with the same exactness and efficiency. Barbara does all this plus studying Home Economics and taking an active part in many of the campus organizations. She is a member of the Y.W.A., Y.W.C.A., Home Economics Club, chairman of the Episcopal group, and president of the Little U.N.O.

PHOEBE COE—Who taught the V. I. horses to understand that Eastern Shore accent? Phoebe Coe, of course! A star member of the Boots and Saddle Club, Curry Club, and the H_2O Club, Phoebe will be remembered when we see a superior horsewoman or a charming person. We will think of her droll remarks and likeable indifference when we meet her candid gaze on the pages of the INTERMONT, and we will wonder if Phoebe is still a brunette.

MARY ELIZABETH CRAIG—Mary Libbie is one of those quiet, sincere persons who is always so willing to do things for others. With her shining brown hair, beautiful complexion, and pleasing smile, she has made a memorable impression on her friends. Last year she was a member of the Glee Club, the Tumbling Club, and the Washington Club. This year she is a member of the Bio-Chem Club, Y.W.A., and Y.W.C.A.

MARTHA VAN RIET HAYWARD—Dark-haired, bright-eyed Martha, manages to keep constantly occupied with her studies in music. She has an ever-ready laugh, is a fiend for bridge, and is always ready for fun. Last year she was a member of the Boots and Saddle Club and played the clarinet in the college orchestra. Martha plans to go to the University of Maryland next year. Her musical ability and ready wit will be assets to her anywhere.

CAROLYN ROHMAN—Dark, bewitching beauty, a melodious laugh, the soul of an art-lover, Carolyn—all synonyms for something nice and warm and rare that we all would like to take home as a priceless collector's item. She holds Tagliavini's tenor second to none and we hold her lovely French second to none—despite her insistence that "I just can't get my u's." Carolyn is a member of the INTERMONT Staff, Capital Club, Boots and Saddle Club, and International Relations Club.

PAULINE BARR—A peal of laughter and a bright, broad smile signify just one thing—Pauline is around! A friend to the day students and boarding students alike, she has led a busy life at V. I. Diligent and industrious, Pauline is treasurer of Phi Theta Kappa, president of the Math and Physics Club, a member of the Day Students Club and Physics Lab Assistant. Her energy and intelligence will make Pauline successful in any endeavor.

MILDRED MARKHAM—"Mildred, come help me focus my 'scope," or "Mildred, what do you call this whatcha ma callit?" You'll hear this conversation any Tuesday or Thursday morning in the Biology Lab. Miss McCroskey is very lucky to have such a competent assistant, and we are lucky to know such a wonderful person. Blonde hair, pretty eyes and the friendliest smile you have ever seen, all these belong to her. She is a liberal arts major and we know that Mildred will succeed in anything she does.

JEAN TRAINHAM—Jean is a day student who is jolly, mischievous and a real live-wire around the campus. Her hearty personality and genuine friendliness have made it easy for her to make friends and to keep them. Her principal interest is art, and her paintings and posters are stamped with her own individuality. She is a member of the Day Students Club and the Art Club. Jean always contributes her share in keeping things light and gay.

BETTY WYGAL—Quiet, refined, loved by all—these are just a few adjectives that we could use to describe Betty. She has added much to our years at V. I. with her many enviable qualities and that pretty red hair with never even a little piece out of place. Changing a few letters of her last name, you get "Wiggle" and that is what we have nick-named her. You will always find Betty ready to take her place at the bridge table or help do anything she can.

JANE REEVES—Being business manager of the INTERMONT and a member of this year's May Court, Jane's efficiency and beauty speak for themselves. Tall, attractive, and sophisticated, this outstanding senior with the slow and easy drawl is one of the most winsome people we know. However, she is far from being too dignified to fit into the gay pattern of the life woven by Apt. B. Her droll witticisms contribute their share to keeping everyone in stitches.

MAGGIE JACOBS—"Gee, Kids, whattaya know!" and Maggie comes dashing into the room with her latest discovery. We may not know much, Maggie, but we do know that in these two short years, your sweet and refreshing ways have won our hearts completely. A real beauty, Maggie is Maid of Honor on our May Court. She is lovable, unselfish, enthusiastic and unaffected. It is no wonder she ranks near the top of our list of favorites.

MARY LAWRENCE WALKER—She is talented, intelligent, athletic, witty, and beautiful. Yes, that's Arnie, the president of Y.W.C.A., the clean sportsman of our varsity hockey and basketball teams, the winner of the Margaret Noffsinger Award to the most outstanding junior, and the perfect person to be our May Queen. The ideal all-round girl, she is a member of the honorary fraternities, Phi Theta Kappa, Phi Beta, and Phi Eta Tau. Arnie will be a credit to V. I. wherever she goes.

FRANKIE FOWLER—That crazy, lovable, big-hearted Frankie; how dull our life would have been without her. This peppy Physical Ed. major is president of both the Athletic Association and Phi Eta Tau. She is a mild sensation on the basketball court and makes just about all the varsity teams. She is also treasurer of the Boots and Saddle Club, and Snapshot Editor of the annual. Always keep that happy-go-lucky personality, Frankie, we love you for it.

BETSY COX—If you see a tall, pretty girl with beautiful golden hair walking toward Hodges Hall mumbling H_2SO_4 - C_2O - H_2O —Oh, shucks!—that's our Betsy. A member of the Bio-Chem Club and Day Students Club, Betsy is one of the most popular day students on campus. Just come down to the Hut and you are likely to see Betsy engineering a bridge game, or helping one of the unfortunate Junior chemistry students, or frantically reading German for the day's lesson. Full of fun, witty, with a beautiful smile—that's Betsy.

CLARISSA SMITH—If you are ever in New York and see on the marquee "Highlights of 1955" starring Clarissa Smith, don't be surprised because we suspected it. Smitty is a member of Delta Psi Omega, Dramatics Fraternity and well she should be, because she is one of V. I.'s best actresses. But don't think that is all she does. She is on the Y.W. C.A. cabinet, INTERMONT staff, and the Day Students' representative on Student Government.

BETTY JO REYNOLDS—If you are ever down at the day students' hut about eleven o'clock, you will see a pretty, dark-haired girl come in, deposit her day's supply of food on the bridge table, give Sally a lecture on "Why you should not yell at me in Mr. Cooke's History of Art class," then flop into a chair. This is B. J. Always willing to help do anything she can. Everyone knows and loves her—a friendlier girl is hard to find.

SALLY TUCKER WILSON—Sally is the prominent president of the Areannes. She was the guiding force behind the Day Students Dance, which owes a great part of its success to Sally. She is vice-president of Phi Beta, second vice-president of Y.W.C.A., a member of the H_2O Club, Glee Club, and INTERMONT staff. "Schmoo's" wit is as popular as she is. The University of Tennessee may hope to see this outstanding Areanne among its ranks this coming fall.

KETURAH ELIZABETH PATRICK—A small package chock-full of fun, wit, and friendliness is Tudy. This brown-haired senior was a member of the Washington Club last year, and this year is a member of the senior hockey and basketball teams, and the H_2O Club. She is also the very efficient secretary to the dietitian. After this year, she plans to continue her secretarial work in the employment of the government in Washington, D. C.

CYNTHIA RICHARDSON—Whether down at the stables, the sewing lab, third floor Hodges, or in one wing of the "Hut," droll, impeccably groomed Cin greets you with that slow grin that is so well known around this campus. Cin's special talent is sewing; she whips up beautiful clothes for herself and other people in no time flat. Her subtle humor keeps everybody happy. A member of the Home Economics Club, Tip and Run Club, Y.W.A. and Y.W.C.A., Cin has, during the three years she has been here, added much to V. I.

MARY MARGARET STONEHOUSE—Lovable, curly-haired "Stoney" has a heart of gold that is full of patience, understanding, and a love for people. She served on both the Junior Minstrel Committee and the Junior-Senior banquet committee last year. This year, she is a busy member of the Annual Staff. Her friendliness and happiness have brought her a score of friends and she has made an indelible impression on all who know her.

HELEN JEANNE TORRANCE—This likeable Yankee excels not only in secretarial science but also in sports. She served on the Junior-Senior banquet committee, made varsity hockey, and varsity softball teams both years and basketball this year. Torrance is a member of the Athletic Association Council, Student Government, Student Government nominating committee and the Annual Staff. Hard working and loyal Torrance is a great asset to all these organizations. An active member in class activities, she does well everything that she undertakes.

PEGGY PHILLIPS—An unassuming North Carolinian is Peggy, whose friendly greeting in the hall is invariably accompanied by a smile in her lovely dark eyes. Vocationally, she's interested in Home Economics with special emphasis on Child Care. Hobby-wise, her love of horses comes first and she spends much of her time on the trail or just lingering around the stable. She is a member of the Home Economics Club, Boots and Saddle Club, Y.W.A. and Y.W.C.A.

ELLEN SINAGRA—Cheerful, cooperative Ellen is a confirmed New York Yankee with exceptional dramatic ability. Her talent in the field of drama is truly recognized on V. I.'s campus for she plays one of the major roles in most of the Drama Department's productions. In addition she belongs to the exclusive Delta Psi Omega fraternity for outstanding drama majors. Ellen is also president of the New York-New Jersey Club and treasurer of the Curry Club.

CAROL BEVERLY SWIHART—Obliging, congenial, and industrious, Beverly quietly pursues her studies with a perseverance that puts most of us to shame. This Home Economics major is especially interested in cooking, home management, and Child Care. She is a member of the Home Economics Club, the Y.W.A. and the Y.W.C.A. Beverly always has something good to say about someone or she says nothing at all. What ever she chooses for her life's work, we know she will do her best.

DOT WILLIAMS—Dot possesses a gift of conversation that comes from her desire to make everybody her friend. She has never seen a stranger in her life. Bubbling over with enthusiasm, she has the enviable talent of never being at a loss for words. Dot's two years at V. I. will complete her formal education because of the influence of a good looking V. P. I. cadet. Dot is a member of the Bio-Chem Club and the Click Club.

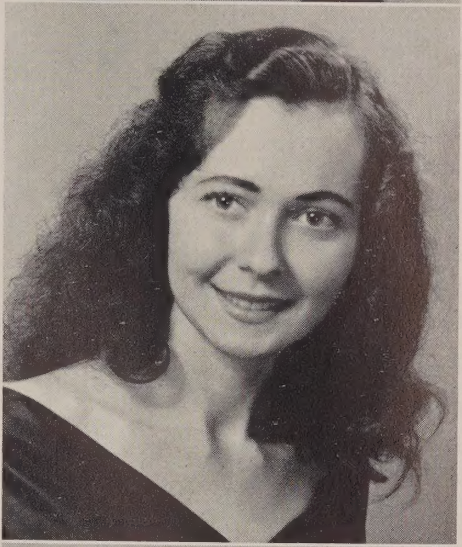
ANNE COLBURN—Sweet, thoughtful, always willing to help others are a few of the characteristics of Anne. She is the veteran telephone-answerer in Senior Hall and, more than likely, that ring will be calling for her. She has a whopping big interest in Trayer's—good food, no doubt—and rain, snow, sleet, or sun will find her on her way there every Monday afternoon. Anne is a member of the H_2O Club and of the Ohio Club.

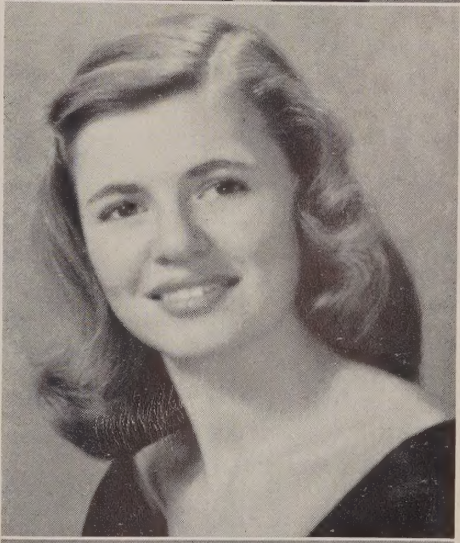
JUDY DAVIS—Blonde, blue-eyed Judy with her infectious laugh and sympathetic ear for troubles has walked straight into our hearts. A waist-size that makes your mouth water, and a figure to match it are among Judy's assets. Her home town, Mount Airy, N. C., is the Garden of Eden of this world to her and Johnny is her Adam. Energetic as they come, Judy is a wonderful girl to know.

BARBARA JEAN McGHEE—A laugh echoes down the hall, and everybody smiles involuntarily—it is Barbie amused by some absurd thing that to nobody else would appear funny. But that is the way she is—always finding good in bad, taking things as they come with her optimistic outlook. Of course, she and her chemistry book have been known to say a few harsh words to each other, but that is beside the point. Eyes U. K.-ward, Barbie.

JUDITH ROBERTSON—Judy's soft Carolinian accent and curly hair, her friendly "Hi theah!" mark a girl of whom the Senior class may well be proud. She knows how to be industrious and she knows how to play—she does both with equal enthusiasm. Her main interest now is in a young man named Barry who visits our campus frequently. A secretarial major, Judy is president of Alpha Pi Epsilon, treasurer of Y. W. C. A., a member of the INTERMONT staff, and a standing name on the Dean's list.

S.S. INTERMONT





AUDREY J. GASCHE—Audrey is a Connecticut Yankee that we read about—full of charming ways, graciousness, sincerity, dependability, and a sweet disposition. Her place on the Athletic Council as soft ball manager speaks well enough for her love of fair play. She is also president of the Tip and Run Club. She is as beautiful on the outside as she is on the inside, and we'll never forget that sweet "hello" from one of V. I.'s blonde treasures.

JANE MILES—A true "Tar Heel," Jane loves every inch of North Carolina—specifically, Durham. If you surprise her when she has a far-away gleam in her eyes, know ye that 'tis of Carolina she is thinking. Jane is far from the fragile, helpless southern belle that she seems to be and she proves it when she come to grips with her Spanish translation. A soft, throaty voice to drool over, clothes that knock your eyes out, and a winsome personality—that's Jane.

MARY LOU SWANSON—She's witty, she's good-looking, she's charming, she's full of the devil, she's "LuLu!" She's a whirlwind of laughter and jokes and you can be sure there is plenty of fun when she's around. LuLu, better known as "Over-Exposure Plus" among Senior Hall girls, is an indispensable member of Varsity basketball and of the hockey team. She's really athletic! Besides all this, she is Y.W.A. Social Chairman and a member of the Annual Staff.

ANN LEE TOLER—Carolina charm oozes from a smiling face with a smiling disposition that belongs to our own Ann. Her mischievous, blue eyes and tinkling laughter indicate the well of fun that she brings along with her. She has a deep sense of responsibility and willingness to work so you find her an ardent B.S.U.-er, being second vice-president of the organization, a member of the Business Staff of the Intermont and a conscientious student Government member—a living proof that nice things come in small packages.

BETTY JO BROWN—A combination of all good and sweet things seasoned with a pinch of wit and humor—that's Betty Jo. Her warm personality is a tonic for young and old alike. With her sincere, direct manner and her sense of understanding, Betty Jo has become an irreplaceable friend. Quietly and easily she has fitted into the life and spirit of V. I., as she capably does all her tasks. Betty Jo holds membership in Y.W.A. and Y.W.C.A.

PAT ROBINSON—"A cloud of dust and a hearty—Whoa!" and Pat races Honey Child into the ring as she has raced into our hearts. A little slip of a girl with an over-sized personality, Pat loves people almost as much as she loves horses—which means, of course, that she's everybody's friend. Aside from her favorite pastime, Pat serves as the capable secretary of the Boots and Saddle Club and as a member of the Y.W.A. and Y.W.C.A.

MABLE YANG—Our two years at V. I. have been greatly enriched by Mable, an unforgettable friend from Honolulu. A thorough and efficient worker, she is so full of pep and dry humor that there is always an atmosphere of mischief and fun wherever we find her. Her serious side appears in the Chemistry lab where she putters away to her heart's content, when she is sitting in on a meeting of the Little U.N.O., or taking part in the Tip and Run Club.

LORETTA YANG—She's not Mabel's sister; she's not Mabel's cousin; but try to convince the V. I. girls of it, and you will marvel at the well of patience that is Loretta's. She is one of our most dutiful seniors and her gay smile and shining black hair faithfully grace every class meeting. She busies herself setting her table in the dining room, and acting as vice-president of the Little U.N.O. A credit to V. I., Loretta is, indeed, a lovely person to know.

QUERY
CARNIVAL

MARIBE CHANDLER—Here is old southern charm at its best. The minute you hear Maribe say one word you know that you are speaking to a true southern belle. Her dark hair and deep dark eyes coupled with a charming easy friendliness make Maribe a person not likely to be forgotten. Her many talents include singing, painting and dancing. Maribe is a color bearer on May Court, a member of Junior Orchesis, Y.W.A. and Y.W.C.A.

MARTHA EVANS—Even-tempered and lovable, Martha is one of the most popular girls at V. I. Her pretty smile, natural charms and Lynchburg accent have endeared her to all of us. The striking combination of dark hair, dark eyes, and a beautiful complexion made Martha a natural choice for Queen of the Harvest Carnival, earlier this year, and Color Bearer on the May Court. She is a member of the Y.W.A. and Y.W.C.A.

BIBBIE HARGIS—The poise that refreshes! Yes, that is Bibbie, a tall, easy going sophisticate with a natural ability for wearing the latest fashion in a casual manner. Bibbie is well-known for her dry wit and sauntering walk. Her activities are varied and many, including May Court, Fashion Editor of the Cauldron, member of the Boots and Saddle Club, B.S.U. a Y.W.C.A. cabinet, advertising staff of the INTERMONT, vice-president of the Nostrae Filiae Club.

MIMI TOWNSEND—A stylish Californian with golden hair and an assured manner is artistic Mimi, Home Economics major with a remarkable talent for sewing. Her piquant beauty, together with her poise and charm, make Mimi an addition to any group, and we really consider ourselves lucky to have known her during her stay at V. I. Mimi is a member of the Y.W.A., Y.W.C.A. and the capable, hard-working portrait editor of the annual.

PHYLLIS BURRIT—A cordial, New Jersey flavored "Hi," and we greet Phyl Burrit, a favorite with everyone. She is sweet, thoughtful, and likeable. Her congenial nature has made her a very valuable friend. Phyl was president of Senior Hall on Student Council, a member of the annual staff, and the New York-New Jersey Club. Phyl, if your memories of us are as pleasant as ours of you, you won't need our wish for happiness.

JANET JOLLIFFE—One of the most talented students in the V. I. Art Department, Jan's posters, water colors, and sketches are familiar sights around the campus. But her glistening red hair and candid blue eyes are even more familiar. Jan forfeits a large amount of her time to doing things for other people, and original ideas and untiring efforts have made her indispensable as the vice-president of the Y.W.C.A. and Art Editor of the annual.

CHARLOTTE MILLSAPS—It's not every day we meet a person as even-tempered as Char, she can take everything that comes with that same genuine smile. Always accommodating and cheerful, she is a sure-cure for any one with the blues. Char was secretary of our Junior Class, on the annual staff this year, and Program Chairman of the Y.W.C.A. An accomplished pianist, Char loves to play—and her favorite song?—"My Bill."

BARBARA THACKER—What a character! Thack has furnished us with the best of entertainment both on and off the stage, and we have enjoyed knowing her to the fullest. She is president of Delta Psi Omega, the Curry Club and the Glee Club. She is vice-president of the H_2O Club and on the annual staff. A tall slender blonde, Thack has both the looks and the talent to become the actress she hopes to be.

SENIOR HALL

DAWN JEANNE DRAKE—Super-charged with talents and unequalled efficiency is Dawn. As Editor of the Cauldron she has shown us all what a charming personality she has, what common sense there is behind those dark, mysterious eyes, and what a cosmopolitan she is. She has crowded into the busy school hours the positions of president of Boots and Saddle Club, vice-president of the International Relations Club, chairman of the Red Cross Council, and membership in the H_2O Club and Ohio Club.

FRIEDA VIOLA PHIPPS—That cute little Frieda! Imagine a smile like a cherub, a sweet manner, a keen intellect, sincerity that makes her a true friend to everyone, and big blue eyes that reflect thoughtfulness, deepness and inner loveliness. These are only suggestions of that pixie charm which is hers. No one could have been a better president of Phi Theta Kappa, president of B.S.U., copy staff Editor, Mission Study Chairman of Y.W.A. than she. It's only natural that she should be a standing member of the Dean's list, and that she should win the English scholarship.

FLORENCE LOUISE ROGERS—Twinkling blue eyes and dancing feet typify our Flo. A sincere personality and conscientiousness have made every job she has attempted a success. The W.S.S.F. drive that she headed is only one example of such enthusiasm. Flo is Community Missions Chairman of the Y.W.A., vice-president of the Florida Club, treasurer of the International Relations Club, a member of the INTERMONT portrait staff, Bio-Chem Club, Junior Orchesis, H_2O Club, and a most energetic cheerleader for the Senior class.

MARGARET ELAINE SHAFFER—A mischievous miss full of laughter and high spirits as contagious as measles is "Shafe." Dullness is sure to flee when she comes around. A president of Y.W.A., Associate Editor of the Cauldron, Honor Council Member, and an active participant in Phi Theta Kappa, B. S. U. Council, and INTERMONT staff she has proved to V. I. her sincerity, and conscientiousness. Being friend to one is not enough, so a perfect friend to all makes Elaine a most popular girl on the campus.

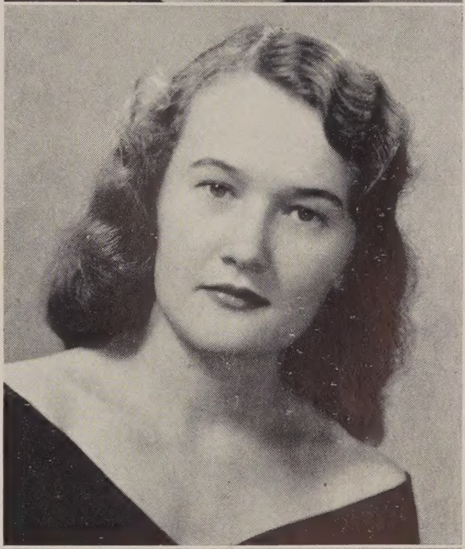
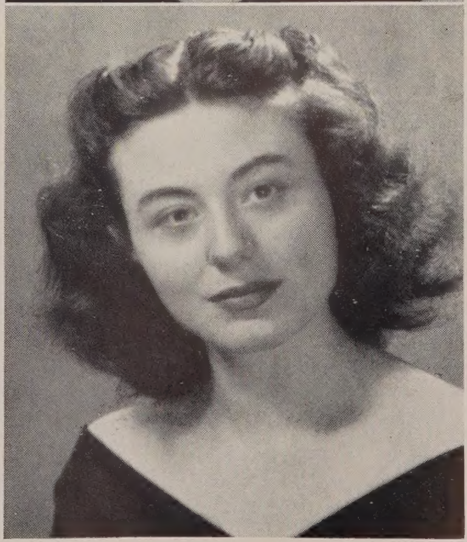
MADELINE BLEVINS—A willingness to work, great skill, and a cordial manner are the qualities that will make this secretary-to-be a real success. Whether it is sharing some of that ever-brewing coffee she is noted for, or lending you her last dime; she is ready to help anyone who comes her way. A member of the West Virginia Club and on the class basketball and volley ball teams, Madeline will always be gay whatever she is doing.

JACKIE MATHESON—One of only two seniors in good old East Hall this year, we were proud to have the class of '49 represented by a girl like Jackie. Always full of class spirit and enthusiasm, she was the first one to all the class meetings and the last to leave. Cute, friendly, and an untiring worker on the annual staff, we wouldn't need a picture to make us remember Jackie and all the wonderful times we have had.

BARBARA YOUNG—Who says beauty is only skin deep! Tall, good-looking, and a swell person all the way through is Bobbie, which is the reason we have enjoyed knowing her. A diligent worker, she goes about her tasks unobtrusively and works wonders in getting them done. A more fitting field than social work could not be found for Bobbie, a cheerful but serious-minded girl who will go far because of her interest in others.





ANNE JUDKINS—Who could ever forget Anne—her sweet smile, those shy blushes, and that quaint and lovable accent! She has been an integral part of our lives and is one of those active day students everyone knows and admires. Always interested in other people, a more sympathetic friend could not be found. Besides making A's in English, Anne finds time for membership in the Y.W.C.A., Bio-Chem Club, Areanne Club, Annual Staff and the feature staff of the Cauldron.

MARILYN McCAULEY—The shy manner is deceptive for Marilyn McCauley has a vivacious personality that has resulted in a "Welcome" sign on the doors of the dorm girls. Being a day student hasn't hindered her from becoming well-known, and her amusing quips have enlivened many gab sessions. As the assistant in the Biology Lab, Marilyn endlessly adjusts microscopes and even there her sense of humor brightens the hours. She is president of the Bio-Chem Club.

BETTY WAYNE McNUTT—Frankness, dependability, and a willingness to work are only a few of the many characteristics we have noticed in Betty Wayne. She is one of those lovable Areannes and takes a great interest in school activities. A dramatic major, she is a talented, realistic actress and has won much applause for her fine acting in many V. I. plays. Betty is a member of the honorary dramatic fraternity, Delta Psi Omega, the Day Student's Club, and the Curry Club.

GAIL BASSETTE—The essence of friendliness, Gail Bassette is always seen with a smile on her face. She does her work well and unobtrusively with the vision of herself as a future librarian always in mind. Her friendliness does not stop with a greeting, but she gladly gives of her help and advice. Gail will continue her studies in Library Science at the University of Tennessee. She is a member of the Hiking Club and the Curry Club.

FLORENCE MITCHELL—Sincere friendliness, steadfast dependability and a genuine interest in others are a few of the characteristics which have endeared Florence to us. A Yankee to the core, she is proud of her Yankeeland but thinks the South has its good points too. Florence's neatness and courtesy will push her up the ladder to success. Anything you want done, and done right, just ask Florence. She is always willing to help. She holds membership in the Home Ec. Club, the Hiking Club, and the New York-New Jersey Club.

Senior Page

Fight, ye seniors, right to the end;
Come on, ye seniors, we're going to win.

Yes, seniors, we have fought hard and long and have always gained victory. Get out your old calendars and review those red letter days.

Remember September 10, 1947—that day we were on our way to the collge world? As we watched the country roll by we wondered what the new world would hold for us in comparison with the joys and accomplishments we had left behind. In our minds was the strong determination to realize all our dreams of college life.

October 13th was marked with a big black X. Yes, Rat Day, the day we all shuddered to think about. Though our knees were shaking and our voices quivering, we ventured out to face those "cruel" seniors. It was on this unmentionable day that we gained our first victory; we had put aside personal feelings and entered into the spirit of the community of which we had become a part.

November 22nd was the next marked date—the Song Contest, the most united and beautiful expression of our love and loyalty for V. I. Though we did not win the victory of the contest, we won another victory—that one which only comes with defeat. With disappointed hearts and tearful eyes we rejoiced with those whom we knew deserved the reward.

The next big day was, of course, the Junior-Senior basketball game. The triumph which followed had been inevitable because of our determination to find the effigy and to win the game.

Our next victory came early in May when we banded together and put on the minstrel so that we could give the Junior-Senior banquet and show we had only love for those who were supposed to be a little bigger and better than we.

We returned from our summer vacation eager to prove that we were a class of which Intermont would always be proud.

Our days were numbered according to the practices we had before the Song Contest. The sincerity in our voices as they rang out through the gym and the thrill we felt when we received the plaque proved the meaning Intermont had for us.

February 5th was the day we had all been waiting for, the Junior-Senior basketball game. Only a few of us made the team, but we all knew that the whole class had an equally important part to play. After an exhausting day of scrambling in and out of basements in search of the effigy which we could not keep, we all donned our red '49 sweaters and cheered our girls to the 5 point victory. With each doing her own part we were then a unified group fighting for one thing.

Suddenly there were only a few circled dates on our calendars. Only those days were left that would climax our student days at Intermont. It was then that we were conscious of the important role V. I. had played in our lives and that we had gained the final victory. We all had grown stronger in character and had learned the true joy which comes only from sharing and working with others. We also realized how great a debt we owe to our two sponsors, Miss Keezel in our junior year and Dr. Turner in our senior year, for their untiring efforts in guiding us forward rather than letting us falter and turn back. We are now a part of you, Intermont, but you are more a part of us so we'll always be singing those familiar words to you—

While the moon beams above
And the sunshine adores you
We are singing our love to you,
Our Alma Mater.

Presenting the Junior Class of 1949, who have made a place for themselves in the fellowship of the rest of the student body as well as in the annals of V. I. Their competent officers, Shela Duby, Peggy Crockett, Anne Aull, and Mary Jane Eidson, have led the class to victories which are not recorded in books, but in hearts. This is a group who have profited by their defeats and have learned to be both good winners and good losers. The climax of the year came when the Juniors presented the Junior-Senior banquet as an attempt to express their appreciation for and dependence upon the Seniors.

In My Room
Sept. 21

Dear Mom,

Well, here I am—a sof ist i - sofis ta—well, a college freshman 'cept they call us Juniors! The first thing they did was to find out how intelligent we were. They found out.

At the "President's Tea" we met Doctor and Mrs. Brantley. They're human!! We met "Mr. Jones' Dog" too. He's also friendly.

Your lovin' daughter,

P. S. Plea$e $end $ome ca$h.

Students' Lounge
Oct. 15

Dear Mom,

I can't write much—writer's cramp—I'm still recoverin' from Rat Day!! I never wrote so many love letters in my life!! And that isn't all—I'm writin' this standin' up. There oughta be a law against stairs with bannisters and floors that need wax!!

Bye,

P. S. Quote, "Yoohooo! Dat you, Hazel? Yeah, chile, it's me—Annie." Don't send that alarm clock; I don't need it. Send MONEY.

Date Parlor (ALL ALONE)
Oct. 31

Dear Mom,

I certainly am tired—we've been practicin' like mad for that Song Contest and studyin' like mad in History. (Quote, "You may read such if you so desire." end of quote.) We're studyin' about Rome (again quote, "and things of that nature." unquote.) Oh, we had the best bridge game last night—7 spades and 2 reprimands!

Bye for now,

P. S. Pu-lease send money.

Dear Mom,

We lost the Song Contest. I wish I had worked harder. But Boy! You should see and hear that Junior Class spirit!

Your daughter,

Across the Hall
December 14

Dear Mom,

Quote, "Hallooooo down thar! This is your ole pal Candy Claws Comin' to you from way up heah at the Nawth Pole." Unquote.

You should have seen us at the Kid Party a couple of weeks ago. We almost forgot we were sophisticated college students. And when we gave the Christmas party for the Center and Orphanage kids I felt as old as the hills, playin' Santy and everything. Could be I'm growing up!

Love,

P. S. Please—$$$—You want a Christmas present or do you?

On a Marble Bench on the Campus

Dear Mother,

Don't you think my letters have improved since last September when I was a green Junior? I have learned some English—quote "See?"—end of quote. This semester has sorta gone by in a hurry. And there were so many things I meant to write, but didn't—Basketball games, effigy hunt, junior-senior banquet, "peanut week," the time I got lost in East Hall and everything. It has all been SWELL!!!

You'll be here for the horse show, the torchlight parade, and May Day; so I'll be seeing you soon.

Your lovin' daughter,

PREPARATORY

PREPARATORY

JOSEPHINE ACTON, Birmingham, Alabama—Her words are simple, her ways sincere. Artist for last year's Junior-Senior banquet—patient and understanding Jo.

JUNE AUER, Rich Creek, Virginia—Dependable, serene, and naturally nice—that's blonde Junie.

SALLYE BEAIRD, Norman, Oklahoma—She smiles for the sake of smiling and laughs for no reason at all—vim, vigor, and vitality are pretty Sallye's specialties.

MARLENE BELKIN, Cleveland, Ohio—Her manner is as willing as her dimpled smile—charming—friendly—and attractive.

BARBARA BROOKS, Pineville, Kentucky—Quiet, likeable, blue-eyed Barbara—little we know what she thinks and dreams.

JANICE BUSIC, Galax, Virginia—Our vivacious Song Leader—poised yet full of fun and frolic—worry and "Drucie" have yet to meet.

JACKIE COOPER, Buffalo Junction, Virginia—Dazzling eyes, dynamic personality, artist and pianist, plenty of fun when she's around—that's our talkative and terrific Jackie.

YVONNE DeLAWDER, Tiquisate, Guatemala—A ready smile—effectual sense of humor—individualist to the very core.

SENIORS

JOAN FISHER, Morristown, New Jersey—Variety is the spice of life—mischief lies behind those pretty blue eyes—likes work, when it's far away—charming, versatile Corky.

BEVERLY FRANKUM, Alcoa, Tennessee—Winner of Y-Teen Scholarship. Her good heart is a letter of credit—quiet and likeable Bev.

RITA JOE FUGATE, Wise, Virginia—Tall, terrific, with a winsome smile—Varsity Basketball team—as popular as they come.

MARILYN GOGGIN, Cleveland Heights, Ohio—Reserved but friendly—soft low voice—camera fiend.

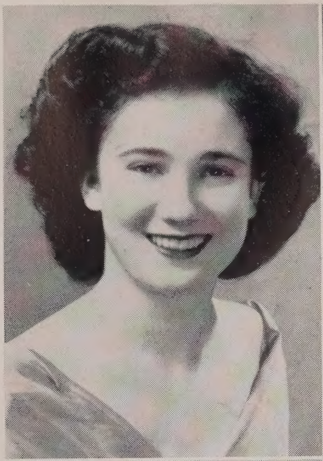
FANNIE GREEN, Thornhill, Virginia—Cooperative—a lasting friend—quiet and unvarying nature.

SHEILA HEINRICH, Corryton, Tennessee—Beautiful red hair—enchanting bundle of charm—never a dull moment—she's made a big dent in all our hearts.

MARY ANN HELLBERG, Franklin, Virginia—Musical ability—vice-president of our class—intelligent and admirable.

RENEE HOLLY, San Pedro Sula, Honduras—Unpredictable, light of heart, boisterous—blonde Renee from Central America.

PREPARATORY

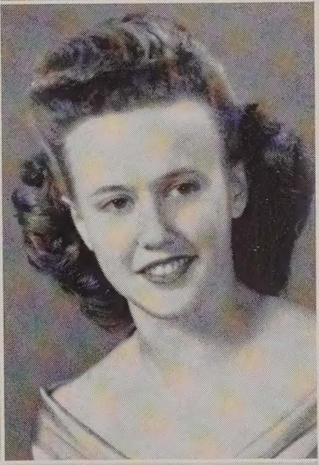


ALCIE HOWARD, Wayland, Kentucky—Our unparalleled class president—versatile, energetic, an unassuming manner—we've loved her law as well as her beauty.

MARY HOBSON HURT, Culpeper, Virginia—Efficient secretary of our class—gentle in manner but a firm realist—charming Mary.

CLAIRE ITZKOVITZ, Aliquippa, Pennsylvania—A willing worker—genuine friendliness—to know "Chip" is to love her.

SHIRLEY KIMBALL, Brooklyn, New York—Good natured—blonde and friendly—loves letters.



ANN LATHAM, Belhaven, North Carolina—Good looking—devilish—has many friends.

MARY ANN LEGETT, Gulfport, Mississippi—Conscientious, sincere—A typical southern belle and an asset to our class—our industrious class treasurer.

LILA LEE MUDGE, Detroit, Michigan—Dramatics—Student Government—pretty eyes—capable and dependable.

THELMA MURILLO, New York, New York—Pleasant and understanding—different—bright eyes.

SENIORS

MARY LOU McFARLIN, Nolensville, Tennessee—Studious—calm in all situations—a true friend—quick to work.

JANE NICHOLLS, Whipple, West Virginia—She took us over the bumps of our Junior year. A quiet conscience makes her serene and admired.

JANET NIX, Annapolis, Maryland—High School editor—Cauldron Staff—lovely and refreshingly alive—appealing smile.

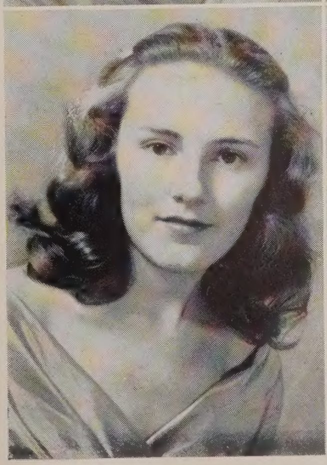
CAROLYN NORRIS, Eutawville, South Carolina—Reliable and sweet—her every effort is sincere—she is truly in keeping with the ideals of V. I.

HEATHER PALMER, Tiquisate, Guatemala—Talkative—vivacious and michievous—full of spicy wit.

GLORIA RHINESMITH, Hilton Village, Virginia—Sophisticated, sunny disposition—real charm.

ATHLYNN RIPPETOE, Mohawk, Tennessee—Poise, fragile beauty, plus a subtle sense of humor.

JOAN RIVERA, San Juan, Puerto Rico—Tall, dark, stunning beauty from Puerto Rico.



PREPARATORY SENIORS

BETTY ROSE, Hemingway, South Carolina—That real southern drawl—demure—always smiling and ready to help—Proud to claim her one of us.

NANCY SLACK, Joliet, Illinois—We like her for her looks and disposition—a real college girl—one we'll never forget.

JEAN STOVALL, Arlington, Virginia—No one is more thoughtful, more loyal. We predict a wonderful future for her.

NELL STARKEY, Salem, Virginia—Carefree and gay—joy is unconfined around her—when in doubt, she giggles; when not, she giggles again.

BETTYE VANCE, Plumtree, North Carolina—Who says beauty is only skin deep? Stunning and blond Tar Heel—student government member.

Preparatory Page

To see the High School students as they really are one must make a tour of the dorms. Up I go! Around the bannisters! Higher and higher! Arriving at Third Floor Administration, I saw Heather Palmer, Pat Harris, Yvonne De Lawder, and Dianne Cantrell playing bridge and drinking cokes. Over on the side, looking wistful was Renee Holly thinking about her Saturday night date.

I hurried up the stairs to Fourth Administration. There sat Barbara Brooks and Nell Starkey playing gin rummy. Betty McLean whizzed by in the general direction of the phone office, leaving behind her a wide-eyed Irene Bower, who was listening as Barbara Rhodes read her latest letter.

Down and up to Fourth Main. "Yea, team, fight, High School, fight" I could tell that was "Squeaky" Brown practicing some cheers while Evelyn Harwell was trying to study her Geometry. Gracious, what's this—Sallye Beaird just dashed by yelling something to Mickey Hunt about—Guess who's dating Jack this week?

Third Main was next, so I set my compass in that direction. Turning to the left I saw Kathy Wright and Peggy Hall practicing some sharp dance steps. That reminds me, I passed Chris on my way over. Barbara Carlton was sitting in the window curling her eyelashes; Chip Itzkovitz was curling her newly-acquired bangs. Joe Fugate and Sonia Almedia passed by on their way to play a little basketball. I tip-toed by Ann Latham who was sitting and dreaming of North Carolina, as usual.

Now, let me see—oh yes, East. I cut across the bridge to see what was cooking! "Hi, Corky, whatcha know?" Corky looked kind of dreamy, was it Barry or Lee? My, but it was quiet on Third East. I stopped by 304 where Sheila Heinrich and our president Alcie Howard were sprawled on the floor playing "jacks"—children at heart, you know. Mary Ann Hellburg and Gina Smith put their heads in the door and said "hi" and left. It was too quiet up there so I went down to second and found plenty of noise.

"Jan Nix and Marlene Belkin, get those lights off."—that's Bettye Vance, student council on the hall. I sneaked around the corner and peeked in a door. "Drucie" Busic playing an imaginary piano, crazy? No, just remembering the Song Contest. Let's see, who was that huddled over in the corner? Why, it was Jackie Cooper writing a 2000 word term paper on "Eggs, better in the Pan than in the Bed." Since Miss Clark likes her assignments on time, I'll leave Jackie to her work and go down the other end of the hall. I could hear that southern drawl of Betty Rose and some mumblings. Jane Nicholls must be having nightmares again. Somebody missing, yes it was "Red" Austin with ping pong balls, basketball, and a hockey stick.

It was on the wrong side of lights out and Bettye was coming down the hall pell mell. It was probably the salt in her bed or 201 at it again.

You have seen a small glimpse of the High School on its hall and now gratitude goes out to our wonderful class sponsor, Mrs. Willett, who has helped us with the Song Contest, class projects, and our little personal problems. To you, Mrs. Willett, goes our undying love. There are many things the class of '49 can look back on to smile and cry about, but all the same they'll be proud to sing, "You'll hear our song aringing through the air, then you'll know the High School girls are there."

The Honor Council

The honor system challenges every girl to apply ideals of honesty to everyday situations. The organization that gives concrete form to the spirit of the honor system is the Honor Council, whose duty it is to educate students to live honorably, encourage them to accept responsibility for their own conduct, and handle cases concerning breach of the honor system. The council is composed of five faculty members and five students plus alternates. The presidents of Student Government, the senior class, the junior class, and the high school senior class automatically become members. Another college senior is elected by the student body. The dean of women, the academic dean, and three other faculty members appointed by the president of the college constitute the faculty representation.

Student Council

New students were introduced to the Student Council during Orientation Week by the traditional S. G. A. Pajama Parties and the program "So This Is Intermont." In the course of the year several new programs, such as Charm Week, with a selection made of "Miss Charm," the money-making project "Faculty Frolics," the Student Council Informal, the Student Government bulletin board, and the formal dinner given in honor of both the old and new councils were installed in hope that many will be kept as traditional.

The money earned by "Faculty Frolics" was used to join the Southern Intercollegiate Association of Student Government, and to send two delegates to the convention held at Mary Washington College, Fredericksburg, Va.

The council is both judicial and legislative. The purpose is to act as a sounding board of Students.

DAWN

The Cauldron

A vital part of student life at V. I. is the Cauldron. Published semi-monthly, it contains, as well as news of student and community activities, regular features including student editorials, personality parades, club news, fashion pictures and reviews, columns dedicated to the daily life of each and every girl, day student activities, everything of interest to the student body. Even the alumnae are not forgotten in the Cauldron as it strives to put V. I. on the printed page.

B. S. U.

An important phase of the work of the Baptist Student Union is the personal spiritual development of every girl at Virginia Intermont. As a spirit pervading the campus, the B. S. U. does its work by sponsoring hall prayer meetings, prayermates, and twilight watch on the front campus. Other big events are Religious Emphasis Week, Vocational Emphasis Week, and the "Student Night at Christmas" held by the home churches of the girls during the Christmas holidays. Thus, the three links—the Church, the B. S. U., and the College—are joined to give each girl a place in a well-balanced program of religious life. The enthusiasm of participants in B. S. U. activities proves the phrase, "It's Collegiate To Be A Christian."

Y. W. A.

One of the most active organizations on campus, Y. W. A. has as its goal uniting girls in Christian service and emphasizing the college student's place in community and world missions. The Intermont calendar is full of social and religious activities sponsored by the Y. W. A. The first of these is the big campus picnic in the fall to promote acquaintances. Other important events which the Y. W. A. traditionally sponsors are the Monogram Service, Christmas and Palm Sunday Vespers, Thanksgiving baskets to the underprivileged, and Mission Focus Week. The Y. W. A. seeks to encourage interest in the people of other racial or social standing throughout the world and by encouraging international understanding, also, to contribute to world peace. Through the high degree of interest and enthusiasm, Y. W. A. has been outstanding on the campus again this year.

Y. W. C. A.

As the oldest religious organization on the campus, the Y. W. C. A. seeks to unite the students in realizing a fuller and more creative life. One of the big functions of this group is the "Little Pal" party which it sponsors on the first Saturday night of the year. Another big event is the Harvest Carnival, the proceeds of which go to the Janie Hammit orphanage. The girls relax at the informal Exam Week Teas, soon followed by the surprises and fellowship of Peanut Week, which reaches its climax with a formal banquet. These activities contribute to the fulfillment of finer living for Virginia Intermont girls.

Phi Theta Kappa

Phi Theta Kappa is the national junior college honorary scholastic fraternity of which Virginia Intermont holds the New Chapter. For membership, at least twelve hours of liberal arts, an average of ninety per cent in all classes, and a high standing in leadership, character, and service are necessary. Miss Marguerite Pflug is sponsor of the fraternity. The officers are: President, Freida Phipps; Vice-President, Janet Perry; Secretary, Marilyn Preston; Treasurer, Pauline Barr. Other members are: Elaine Shaffer, Mary L. Walker, Betsy Pardue, Barbara Rivinias, Elizabeth Moore, Ann Aull, Mildred Kelly, Joyce Nelson, Elizabeth Baucum, Mary Neblitt, and Betty Barger.

Y-Teens

Y-Teens, formerly known as Girl Reserves are the junior members of the Y. W. C. A. The purpose of this organization is to increase a charitable and democratic spirit among high school girls, and to deepen the spiritual attitude of each member. Their main project was the Y-Teen Scholarship awarded to the girl meeting the necessary qualifications, and selected by the organization. The officers are: President, Bettye Vance; Vice-President, Margaret Hall; Secretary, Joan Austin; Treasurer, Joan Fisher. Mrs. George P. Milne is faculty adviser.

International Relations Club

The Intermont Chapter of the International Relations Club was founded in 1946 under the guidance of Dr. James Turner, the present Sponsor. The chapter is a member of the Carnegie Endowment for International Peace and has two meetings each month consisting of either a speaker or a round table discussion of a current problem. The purpose of the club is to encourage individual thought and opinion on both national and international affairs.

The Areannes, official name of the day students' organization, is composed of students living in and around Bristol who come to V. I. The popular Hut is their own special between class meeting place. Besides special activities of their own, the Areannes have cooperated more closely with the dorm students this year than ever before in V. I. activities. An extra-special event was the dance given by the Areannes in honor of the dorm girls. The progress made by the Areannes owes much of its success to its officers and to the splendid cooperation of the group as a whole.

Click Club

As an extra-curricular activity, the Click Club has secured its place on V. I.'s campus with a large following of amateur photographers. All that is needed for membership in this group is an interest in photography plus hopes to learn more of its techniques by lectures, dark room developing, and comparison of original points. Bi-monthly meetings are held with discussion subjects chosen by popular demand. A contest was sponsored by the club to choose the best pictures taken on campus with awards presented to the winners. Members of the Click Club have been active in contributing to the snapshot section of the annual, and the Cauldron. The officers are: President, Carolyn Wilcox; Secretary-Treasurer, Marcia McBride; Publicity Managers, Betty Baker and Toddy Long; Sponsor, Mr. Donald Pearce.

Their stiff white aprons, pleasant smiles, and quick service greet you as you enter the dining room—these girls who belong to the Tip and Run Club. They make our meals twice as enjoyable with their splendid eager service. The members have enjoyed several activities this year—movies, a Christmas party, a special breakfast, and a banquet honoring the most efficient and most typical of dining room girls, June Eller, queen of the Tip and Run Club. We tip our hats to their clock-work precision.

Dear Miss Baker:

It was a pleasure to judge the feature section of "The Intermont", although you actually sent me 17 winners from which to choose. When judging from photographs, I look for warmth of personality, that well-scrubbed American look (my favorite bromide) and, a pretty girl, of course.

Best wishes to all,

Sincerely,

MAY COURT

"A thing of beauty is a joy forever" and Keats' statement is confirmed when one gazes at the beautiful girls who compose our May Court. There is no spectacle at V. I. more lavish and more memorable than May Day. A deep silence falls over the audience of parents, friends and classmates heralding the trumpeters, then the court, then the crown-bearer, and last the queen, resplendent in her glory. This is the day of dreams come true, of wildest hopes realized amid the pageantry and pomp of the procession.

May Day is the essence of all that is good and beautiful of V. I. The girls who glide gracefully down the path with their heads high symbolize an ideal cherished by their classmates to be beautiful in character as well as in features and in body. This is the only occasion which pays tribute to the girls who have the most beauty, charm, and poise and it is made an unforgettable one. The inutterable perfection of May Day will live forever in the memories of those whom it honors.

TORCHBEARERS

"Beauty is truth, truth beauty; that is all you know on earth, and all you need to know." Thus we symbolize our Torchbearers—those girls who carry within them the ideals which are the basis on which V. I. was founded—honor, purity, leadership, an understanding of fellowman, and an eagerness to sacrifice oneself for the benefit of another. These girls, chosen by their class mates as those who exhibit these characteristics, have set an example of selfless giving—giving to individuals, to groups, and to the school, in the form of advice, sympathy, guidance, new ideas, and warm, deep V. I.-ism. Outstanding in every respect, the Torchbearers have initiative and eagerness to make V. I. an even better place to be, to raise its code of honor, and to be of service in any possible way. These are the girls who will become the successful alumnae in their various fields as their winning personalities carry them through. We salute you, Torchbearers—may your lights never fail, but continue to shine throughout each of your lives.

Lest We Forget

The staff of the INTERMONT, before writing the "finished" label on our yearbook, takes this opportunity of expressing our gratitude to the indispensables of V. I.—to the ones whose lives they have devoted so eagerly to building the foundation of all that is Intermont.

To Mr. Thomas, our keeper of the night, we pay tribute for his vigilance which keeps us from harm as we sleep peacefully and without fears.

Mr. Roberts, our cure-all man, deserves a ringing round of applause for his dexterity and helpfulness. He and his crew can be found doing anything from decorating the gym to repairing a leaky faucet.

Walter Young continually astonishes all the students with his beautiful poetry, through which his wisdom and optimistic turn of mind shine. There is a wealth of resources in his ability to put into words what few have been able to understand—the mysteries of life.

Annie, Hazel, Okie, and the others will not be forgotten as they mix their jolly humor and wide smiles with the housecleaning tasks.

These and many more symbolize what Intermont means to us—a closely-knit, democratic community where "Love" is the password.
